BE A SOCIAL MEDIA GURU TO NGOs

Got a knack for design? Use a free design tool like Canva to create a clean, eye-catching social media post for a local NGO. Your one hour of creativity could help them reach more people and increase their impact.

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

WRAP KINDNESS IN PAPER

Create and decorate simple paper lunch bags with cheerful drawings and kind messages. Meals delivered to the needy in these personalised bags carry more than just food. They carry warmth and care. The bags are easier to make than you think, and more fulfilling than you can imagine.

12 RESPONSIBLE CONSUMER AND PRODUCTION

HELP SOMEONE TURN A NEW PAGE

Make a mark in someone's reading journey. Create bright, uplifting bookmarks with short notes or simple artwork. Donate them to schools or libraries and help turn every page into encouragement for a young reader discovering the joy of books.

4 QUALITY EDUCATION

BRING BACK THE BIRDS

With a few basic materials, you can build a simple bird feeder for your balcony, terrace or neighbourhood park. It's a small act that supports local wildlife and keeps nature thriving in our cities.

15 TH GOALS

BE A SEED BALL ARTISAN

Mix clay, compost and native seeds to make seed balls that can be scattered in open spaces. With the next rain, they spring to life, helping transform neglected patches into pockets of green.

15 TH GOALS

BE THE TOY MAKER

Turn everyday items into little moments of joy. Transform a simple sock you may have lying around into a fun sock puppet, paint a simple puzzle, or create a handmade toy for a child in a daycare or orphanage. It takes very little time, but it will spark big smiles.
